FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hill International Enters into New $100 Million Senior Credit Facility

Marlton, NJ – June 30, 2009 – Hill International (NYSE:HIL), the global leader in managing construction risk, announced today that it has entered into a credit agreement with a consortium of banks led by Bank of America, N.A. (NYSE:BAC). The new credit agreement provides for a senior credit facility which increases Hill's borrowing capacity from $60 million to $100 million.

Bank of America was the administrative agent and Banc of America Securities LLC was the sole lead arranger for the new facility. Other banks involved in the transaction are Capital One, N.A., The Private Bank & Trust Co. and PNC Bank, N.A.

"This new credit facility provides our company with the increased borrowing capacity we need to continue to expand our business and create value for our stockholders," said Irvin E. Richter, Hill's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Hill International, with 2,300 employees in 80 offices worldwide, provides program management, project management, construction management and construction claims and consulting services. Engineering News-Record magazine recently ranked Hill as the 8th largest construction management firm in the United States. Certain statements contained in this press release may be considered "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and it is our intent that any such statements be protected by the safe harbor created thereby. Except for historical information contained in this press release, the matters set forth herein including, but not limited to, any projections of earnings or other financial items; any statements concerning our plans, strategies and objectives for future operations; and any statements regarding future economic conditions or performance, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations, estimates and assumptions and are subject to certain risks and uncertainties. Although we believe that the expectations, estimates and assumptions reflected in our forward-looking statements are reasonable, actual results could differ materially from those projected or assumed in any of our forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause our actual results, performance and achievements, or industry results to differ materially from estimates or projections contained in our forward-looking statements include: modifications and termination of client contracts; control and operational issues pertaining to business activities that we conduct on our own behalf or pursuant to joint ventures with other parties; difficulties we may incur in implementing our acquisition strategy; the need to retain and recruit key technical and management personnel; and unexpected adjustments and cancellations related to our backlog. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our forward-looking statements are set forth in the reports we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We do not intend, and undertake no obligation, to update any forward-looking statement.
